ABC NEWS: VANISHED

Thursdays (6 part series)

10:00 - 11:00PM ET/PT

ABC News will present each week stories about people who have vanished into thin air, either through their own volition, by indulging in modern fantasy of escape and adventure, or by way of something much more depraved, like kidnapping and murder.

NIGHTLINE IN PRIMETIME: BRAVE NEW WORLD

Thursdays (8 part series)

10:00 - 11:00PM ET/PT

ABC News will bring each week together a variety of artists, scholars and performers to explore -- as a team -- complex issues of the human spirit. Anchored by Ted Koppel and reported by Robert Krulwich, this program explores how the fabric of our world is changing in the most fundamental ways.

ABC NEWS SPECIALS - Third Quarter, 1999

Sunday, September 5, 1999

"Teens: What Makes Them Tick?" with John Stossel - John Stossel takes another look at teenagers and their amazing energy and creativity. He reports on new scientific studies on teenage brains, which may explain why teenagers think so differently from adults, and other studies that demonstrate conclusively that teenagers are physically superior.

Sunday, September 12, 1999

"The Barbara Walters Special" - Barbara Walters spends a revealing hour with three diverse talents: Liam Neeson, star of this summer's blockbuster, "Star Wars: The Phantom Menace"; Grammy Award-winning superstar Celine Dion; and two-time Oscar-winning icon Elizabeth Taylor.

Tuesday, September 14, 1999

"Behind Closed Doors with Joan Lunden VIII" - ABC's Joan Lunden once again takes viewers to a place rarely -- if ever-- seen by the public. Joan takes an inside look at life in the fast lane by taking viewers behind the wheel with NASCAR race driving superstar, Jeff Gordon, and hitting the floor as a trader on the frenetically paced New York Stock Exchange. Also, Joan goes behind the closed doors of the DeBeers diamond empire, where each year, diamonds worth billions of dollars make the journey from being graded to being worn on the red carpet by some of Hollywood's biggest celebrities.

Sunday, September 19, 1999

"Is America #1? with John Stossel - John Stossel travels around the globe to compare America with life elsewhere. Why are some countries rich, while others are poor? Stossel explores what it is about America that accounts for its inventiveness and prosperity. He reports that of all the factors that affect the success of a nation -- such as climate, geography and luck -- nothing matters as much as economic and cultural liberty.

ABC News: Vanished - Third Quarter, 1999

Thursday, July 1, 1999

"Abducted" - Diane Sawyer examines the case of Stephen Fagan, who abducted his two daughters more than 20 years ago. In the midst of a bitter custody, Mr. Fagan took the two girls; in an elaborate charade, that would last 20 years, he told the girls their mother had died, changed his name and took the girls to a life of luxury in Palm Beach.

Thursday, July 8, 1999

"Stolen in the Night" - Peter Jennings explores the historic case of the Lindbergh kidnapping and the events that unfolded between 1927 and 1935 in the life of the first media superstar, Charles A. Lindbergh. This program features the first look ever at the Lindbergh marriage and the impact the kidnapping of their son, Charlie, had on their relationship.

Thursday, July 15, 1999

"Lost at Sea" - Jay Schadler reports on the last journey of a ship whose crew battled "the Storm of the Century". The Andrea Gall, a commercial fishing vessel left port in Gloucester, Massachusetts in late September, 1991, and was never seen again.

Thursday, July 22, 1999

"Foul Play" - Cynthia McFadden examines the mysterious disappearance of Madalyn Murray O'Hair, her son and granddaughter in 1995. She became the "most hated woman in America," a title she bore with honor, after she won a historic victory in the Supreme Court to ban prayer in public schools.

Nightline in Primetime: Brave New World - Third Quarter, 1999

Thursday, July 29, 1999

"Speed" - Anchored by Ted Koppel and reported by Robert Krulich, this broadcast looks at how speedy machines are speeding up the pace of life. Will we ever slow down. What is it about speed that is so attractive? Will we ever slow down?

Thursday, August 5, 1999

"Human Machines" - We are putting more and more machines in our bodies, artificial knees, kidneys, retinas...what happens when machines enter the brain? What happens when people and their machines become one? Robert Krulich and computer guru, Danny Hillis discuss these questions.

Thursday, August 12, 1999

"Family" - Robert Krulich visits the home of a couple in Grand Rapids, MI, who have opened their home to children available for adoption lingering in the files month after month and no one taking them. This story tells of how the couple transforms a group of children from different backgrounds, languages and arriving at different ages into a family.

Thursday, August 19, 1999

"Cloning" - In this broadcast, Robert Krulich talks with Princeton University's Lee Silver about cloning. Why not clone a human?

Thursday, August 26, 1999

"The Sixth Extinction?" - Creatures, big and small, are disappearing at an alarming rate. This time, since humans are doing the damage, and humans -- unlike meteors -- can think, maybe this time humans can live through a mass extinction, maybe even prosper? Robert Krulich talks with paleontologist David Jablonski of the University of Chicago and The Field Museum..

Thursday, September 2, 1999

"Looking for Life" - Suppose we do find life in our solar system? Most probably it won't be a big, green, scary movie alien, but a little microbe in a rock. What conversation can you have with a microbe? Robert Krulich talks with Neil Tyson, director of Hayden Planetarium at New York's American Museum of Natural History.

Thursday, September 9, 1999

"Hope: A Case Study" - Robert Krulich reports on: two brain surgeons -- husband and wife -- who deal with dramatic, high-risk patients; both try to be top-flight surgeons, cutting edge researchers, teachers, with time left for their two little girls and rigorous exercise. And while they hope to have it all...if anything goes wrong, they can't.

Thursday, September 16, 1999

"Beyond Atoms" - Atoms are small, but quarks are smaller. And now, even smaller than quarks, a new notion of what everything in the universe is made of: Dancing, vibrating, pulsating "strings." A musical tribute to the New Physics, featuring Robert Krulwich's conversation Professor Brian Greene, author of "The Elegance Universe."

20/20 - Third Quarter, 1999

Friday, July 2, 1999

"CLEANING UP" - Chris Wallace asks what's your cleaner doing when you're not at home? Hidden cameras capture an outrageous crime committed right in your own home. You hire someone to clean, but are you really hiring a thief? Cleaning people caught in the act, sneaking around, stealing cash and your trust. MAID SERVICE (Producer - Jackie Payson, PA - Erika Starke)

"BACK ON THE TRACK" - Perri Peltz profiles Terri O'Connell who until a few years ago was known as up and coming young race car driver J.T. Hayes. Born male but wishing she were female, Terri had sex reassignment surgery in 1992. Although she gave up her dream of professional racing after the surgery, she is now determined to return to the sport, albeit with a different gender. Ms. Peltz reports that she is now seeking sponsors and dreams of someday racing in the Indianapolis 500. RACE CAR DRIVER (Producer - Judy Tygard, PA - Brian Hale)

"OUT FOR BLOOD" - How are you coping with what some believe could be the worst mosquito season in years? Following tests which literally used human beings as "insect bait," Arnold Diaz reports on which mosquito products worked well and which ones researchers scratched off their lists. BUG ZAPPERS (Producer - Greg Fisher, PA - Tom Goldstone)

Sunday, July 4, 1999

"TOO OLD TO DRIVE" - Chief correspondent Chris Wallace reports on the dangerous driving habits of some of the elderly, and the politics surrounding age-based testing. ELDERLY DRIVERS (Producer - Stewart Harris, PA - Phoung Nguyen)

"THE BIGGER THE BETTER?" - Arnold Diaz reports on food portions in America. It's the latest trend - fast food shops and restaurants stuffing their pockets by piling your plate - the portions are huge and so are we. MEGA PORTIONS (Producer - Glenn Ruppel; PA - Myrna Toledo)

"THE GOVERNMENT KNOWS BEST" - John Stossel reports on how two restaurants fight back after being accused of gender bias by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. JOE'S CRAB (Producer - Frank Mastropolo, PA - Myrna Toledo)

"SECRETS OF THE HEART" - Dr. Nancy Snyderman reports on a medical condition that even most doctors don't know exists, but when it strikes, the results can be deadly. Teenagers are the usual victims - you may have heard stories of apparently healthy teens unexpectedly and suddenly dying. SUDDEN TEEN DEATH SYNDROME (Producer - Andrea Fleischer; PA - Richelle Rogers)

Monday, July 5, 1999

"THE HANDS OF FATE" - Bill Ritter reports on the sometimes dangerous act of "moshing" which is gaining in popularity with teens at rock concerts. Six kids reportedly have died worldwide and thousands are injured every year from the practice, which consists of diving off the stage onto the crowd and "surfing" over the heads of the spectators. Should concert security be doing more to prevent what many kids say is all in good fun? MOSHING (Producer - Catherine Upin, PA - Brian Hale)

"MYSTERY AT SEA" - In 1945 a captain was court-martialed, blamed because his ship went down during WWII. Most men perished in hideous deaths at sea - attacked by sharks - dying of thirst. It was a terrible tragedy and almost forgotten. Recently, Hunter Scott set out to pursue the truth and restore the honor of the captain and his crew. MYSTERY AT SEA (Producer - Sam Fine, PA - Hillery Tullin)

"G.M.A.B. DAY GLOW HOUSES" - Wild, colorful houses - their owners think they look great, but a lot of people don't. Do towns and cities have the right to tell people how to live their lives - what to do with their property? John Stossel investigates. G.M.A.B. DAY GLOW HOUSES (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

Wednesday, July 7, 1999

"WATCHING THE NANNY" - You hire a nanny to watch your child. But have you ever asked yourself who's watching the nanny? Do you know what goes on in your home when you're away? Is your child being looked after in a caring way? Most parents would probably say yes, but Perri Peltz shows us just how wrong many parents can be and the extreme steps parents can take to uncover the dangerous truth. BABY WATCH (Producer - John Siceloff, Nina Alvarez; AP - Phu Nguyen)

"DEADLY HATE" - White supremacist Benjamin Smith went on a shooting spree - spraying bullets and racial hatred across two states. When it was over, a black former basketball coach and a Korean graduate student were dead and 9 others wounded. The shooter then turned the gun on himself. Diane Sawyer brings us an unsettling account of a man's hatred in his own words and an exclusive interview with Elizabeth Sahr, Smith's former girlfriend. SMITH'S GIRLFRIEND (Producer - Tom Berman; AP - Jason Maloney; PA - James Wang)

"JUROR NUMBER 10" - Co-anchor Sam Donaldson speaks to Gillian Guess, an aspiring actress working on her master's degree in law and psychology, who admits to having sex with a murder defendant while participating in his trial as a juror. JUROR # 10 (Producer - Harry Philips, PA - Phuong Nguyen)

"WAKING UP TOO SOON" - A bizarre experience you won't believe. It happens to thousands of patients in the operating room. They've been put under with anesthesia, but it isn't enough. You're desperate to cry out, but you can't - you struggle to move, but you're paralyzed - the doctor thinks you're asleep but you're not. We'll show you how it can happen and the revolutionary machine that may end the nightmare. ANESTHESIA AWARE (Producer - Barb Koster, PA - Brian Hale, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

Friday, July 9, 1999

"A MURDEROUS ENCOUNTER" - 18-year-old honor student and athlete Jeremy Strohmeier's brutal sexual assault and murder of 7-year-old Sherrice Iverson in a Los Vegas casino bathroom shocked the nation. Now for the first time, the Long Beach, California teen sentenced to life without parole and his parents tell their story and offer a warning to other families. Barbara Walters' exclusive interview airs on ABC News "20/20 Friday." TEEN KILLER (2 PARTS) (Producer - Joanna Breen, PA'S - Michelle Spahn, Minda Allarde, Eric Strauss)

"UNDER YOUR SKIN" - It's well-known that too much exposure to the sun can cause long-term damage to your skin. But how can you tell if you're spending too much time in the sun? Correspondent Sylvia Chase examines a new camera that can show how your skin will look years into the future. UV DETECT (Producer-Barb Koster, PA - Marni Harriman)

"GROWING YOUNGER" -- The secrets of staying young! Why do some people age so little? Dr. Michael Roizen says he knows the secrets that can make you act and feel younger than you are. And he thinks it depends of what you eat, whether you own a dog, even how often you have sex. Bill Ritter and the surprising ways you might add one, five even 25 years to your life. REAL AGE (Producer – Siobhan Nolan; PA – Erin Healy)

Sunday, July 11, 1999

"HOLLYWOOD'S UNLIKELY HERO" - Ever since a young black journalist named Mumia Abu Jamal was arrested on the scene of a vicious merger, passions have run high on all sides of the case. With time running out for Jamal, the struggle by his supporters to save him from execution has reached a critical stage. MUMIA (Producer - Harry Phillips, AP - Yaro Velez, AP - Phu Nguyen)

"FACING THEMSELVES" -- Obsessive mirror checking may seem normal for many teens in their formative years, but is the image some see causing severe angst to the point of contemplating suicide in some cases? John Stossel reports on teenagers struggling with body dysmorphic disorder (BDD), a medical condition in which the brain distorts the body image, refocusing attention on parts or areas they are unsatisfied with. BDD (Producer – Steve Brand)

"THE BUZZ ON BUG SPRAYS" - Sylvia Chase and The Good Housekeeping Institute put insect repellents to the test – which ones work the best and which ones don't. BUG SPRAY (Producer – Valerie Parker)

Monday, July 12, 1999

"HMOs – WHO'S REAPING THE BENEFITS" -- For many people who are frustrated with their health coverage and the ability to choose their own doctors, republicans and democrats are fighting over a "Patients Bill of Rights." It will decide just what rights millions of you will have when you deal with your HMO or managed care company. Advocates for the mentally ill say mental health problems are more common than cancer or heart disease affecting one in five families. Yet insurance providers have slashed coverage drastically over the past ten years. Lynn Sherr with the story of one family who feels a company put profits first, with tragic results. HMO SUITS (Producer – Catherine Upin; PA – Brian Hale)

"THE GREAT PRETENDER" - Connie Chung with an astounding story of trickery and deception. Michael Backman - career criminal. He pretended to be the nephew of Diana Ross, he conned a congressman, he even scammed the military. But his most incredible deception was yet to come - a grown man going back to high school pretending to be a teenager/ HIGH SCHOOL HIDEOUT (Producer - Teri Whitcraft, PA - Jean Alter)

"HANDWASHING" - Washing your hands may be the single most important thing you can do to protect your health. Dr. Timothy Johnson with an urgent health warning. Washing your hands – a simple habit that may protect your health and maybe your life. HANDWASHING (Producer – Steve Brand)

Wednesday, July 14, 1999

"THE ART OF THE CAR DEAL" - "Car packing" is a deceptive practice in which car dealers quote bogus figures to entice buyers to accept financing and payment terms they might otherwise reject. Sam Donaldson's hidden camera investigation. CAR PACKING (Producer - Ann Sorkowitz, PA - Susan Kriskey, Phoung Nguyen)

"TOM CRUISE" -- In his first broadcast interview, Tom Cruise talks about the making of "Eyes Wide Shut," and the sudden loss of director Stanley Kubrick. The exclusive interview, conducted by Diane Sawyer, will air in two parts. TOM CRUISE (Producer – Dennis O'Brien; AP – Susan Kriskey)

"THE BOY IN THE CAGE" - John Quinones tells the story of a little boy. He spent two years eating and sleeping confined in a cage, 20 hours a day for two years – and child welfare officials let it happen. His situation might make you despair of what some children have to endure, but this story takes a turn that will lift your spirits and restore your faith in humanity. CAGED BOY (Producer - Sara Koch, PA - Sandra Temko)

Friday, July 16, 1999

"AFTER THE CRASH" -- Last week, one of the largest personal injury claim settlements ever was awarded to a family who sued the General Motors corporation after the fuel tank of their vehicle exploded, leaving six people severely burned. In light of this decision, "20/20's" Arnold Diaz reports on this alarming safety problem -- gas tanks that may leak potentially dangerous amounts of fuel. Affecting thousands on the road, many survive high-speed collisions only to battle car fires -- fires that often result in death. "20/20" reveals never-before-seen footage of experimental government tests which show that some popular automobiles fail to protect from gas tank spillage in 50 mph crashes. CAR FIRES (Producer -- David Shapinsky, Glenn Ruppel; PA -- James Altman)

"THE STRANGEST LOVE STORY OF ALL" - It was a story that made headlines and prompted a Tony Award-winning play called "M Butterfly," and then a movie of the same title. The protagonists were a French attaché stationed in China, who fell in love with an actor/singer from the Beijing opera. Over an 18-year period there were clandestine meetings, espionage, and a child. And for all those years, the Frenchman never knew the most important thing about the affair -- that the "woman" he loved was a man. MADAME BUTTERFLY (Producer -- Joy Ciarcia-Levy)

"Give Me A Break" - Little entrepreneurs can get so tangled up in government red tape that it becomes impossible for them to do business. John Stossel believes all those rules and regulations can kill a good idea forever. STUPID RULES (Producer-Frank Mastropolo, PA-Myrna Toledo)

"SECRET SERVICE FOR J.F.K." -- Lynn Sherr speaks with three of the secret service agents who remember John Kennedy, Jr. SECRET SERVICE (Producer -- David Fitzpatrick; AP -- Sandra Temko; PA -- Donna Hunter)

"FREE MONEY" -- Arnold Diaz with a follow up on a company that promises parents scholarship money for college. SCHOLARSHIPS (Producer -- David Fitzpatrick; AP -- Angela Chambers)

"THE LITTLE DOG THAT COULD" -- Often, those of us who love dogs feel that they can read our mood. But how many of us can say that our dog can sense our every need? Bob Brown tells a story of a little dog whose job it is to do just that. His name is Delta, and he's not like any dog you've ever met before. AMAZING DOGS (Producer - Barbara Nienaltowski, PA - Rosa Cho)

Friday, July 23, 1999

"J.F.K., Jr. MEMORIAL SERVICE" -- Coverage of service for John Kennedy and Carolyn Bessette. MEMORIAL SERVICE (Producer -- Martin Clancy; AP -- Christina Romano; PA -- Minda Allarde; PA -- Myrna Toledo)

"CAROLINE KENNEDY" -- Lynn Sherr on the life of Caroline Kennedy. CAROLINE KENNEDY (Producer -- Teri Whitcraft; AP -- Valerie Parker; AP -- Stefanie Hirsh; PA -- Eric Strauss; PA -- Mary Healy)

"THE HIGH PRICE OF DRUGS" -- Brian Ross with an exclusive 20/20 investigation into allegation that a big drug manufacturer offered payments to prevent a cheaper generic version of one of its drugs from coming to market. GENERIC DRUGS (Producer -- Dave Rummel; PA -- Myrna Toledo)

Sunday, July 25, 1999

"FAKE HATE" - Hate crimes in America have provoked outpourings of sympathy for the victims and outraged cries to bring the perpetrators to justice. But what if the victims and the perpetrators are one and the same? Deborah Roberts reports that faking hate crimes is a new way for con artists to rip off insurance companies, and that sometimes entire communities are fooled in the process. FAKE HATE (Producer - Sara Koch, PA - Sandra Temko)

"GAMBLE OF HIS LIFE" - Bill Ritter talks to Joe McNeely who is a compulsive gambler and took one last, extraordinary step to try to save himself - he begs a number of casinos themselves for help in conquering his addiction. Instead of trying to help him, some of the casinos sent Lear jets and limousines to lure him back. Now this former prize fighter is fighting back against the casinos he says wouldn't let him to, and almost destroyed him. GAMBLING (Producer - Burt Rudman, PA - Gail Rosenberg, Correspondent - Bill Ritter)

"DR. SARNO'S CURE" - Millions of Americans suffer from chronic back pain. We buy special pillows, special chairs, we do exercises, take pills and sometimes resort to surgery. But there are times when none of it works. John Stossel tells us about a controversial but simple treatment that could end your years of suffering. DR. SARNO (Producer - Ene Riisna; PA - Deborah Runcie)

Monday, July 26, 1999

"THE YOUNG MAN'S CANCER" - Dr. Timothy Johnson on the type of cancer to strike young males - Testicular cancer. A recent study has shown a 60% increase in the disease over the last 30 years and no one is quite sure why. But testicular cancer is 90% curable if its caught early. The trouble is, most men are too shy or squeamish to do the one, simple thing that could detect the cancer - a self-examination. TESTICULAR CANCER (Producer - Carole Radziwill, AP - Angela Chambers)

"A FATHER'S CHOICE" - Connie Chung interviews John Cook, who made the gut-wrenching decision to turn his son, Andy over to the authorities on a double murder charge. FATHER'S CHOICE (2 PARTS) (Producer - Alan B. Goldberg, AP - Reid Orvedahl)

"Give Me A Break" - You may have seen them in your town...A corps of men and women who have taken to the streets...doing work that makes your neighborhood a little cleaner...A little nicer to live in. They do it in exchange for a welfare check. But not everyone likes it. Some people say that forcing people to work for their welfare money smacks of slavery. But John Stossel points out that's absurd in this week's "Give Me A Break!" G.M.A.B./WORKFARE (Producer-Frank Mastropolo, PA-Myrna Toledo)

Wednesday, July 28, 1999

"WHY DON'T WE CARE" -- It was a genocide that left behind over 800,000 dead in just three months, a country full of orphaned children, and refugees living in devastating poverty. Yet the Rwandan genocide received no NATO-like intervention, no involvement from the West and still, little assistance for the refugees who struggle to find clean water and food for their families. Deborah Roberts visits Rwanda and takes a look at why this humanitarian crisis received little international response, while Kosovo refugees received military intervention, humanitarian care and in some cases, even American citizenship. REFUGEES (Producer - Kathy McManus; AP - Gail Rosenberg)

"JUVENILE JAILS" - OAD: 11/18/98 -- In recent years, crimes committed by teenagers have become so violent, states have begun punishing young offenders in prisons, rather than relying on the old system of detention centers and training camps. This change in focus has fueled a growing debate among authorities and youth experts: Do juvenile jails scare kids straight or turn them into career criminals? JUVENILE JAILS (Producer - Robbie Gordon, AP - Sarah Walker, AP - Jason Rovou)

"VIDEO VOYEURISM" - OAD: 1/29/99 -- Is somebody secretly watching your every move - even in your own home. John Quinones tells us an extraordinary story about how a voyeur used high tech equipment to boldly watch his neighbors most private moments. VIDEO VOYEURISM (Producer - Lee Hoffman, PA - Hillery Tullin, Correspondent - John Quinones)

Friday, July 30, 1999

"BROKEN PROMISES, SHATTERED LIVES" – OAD: 2/1/99 -- Connie Chung tells the story of good intentions that met a bad end. Imagine walking into a meeting with mobsters while wearing a hidden microphone. Think of the courage that takes. Connie Chung talks to two men who did just that. They weren't undercover cops – they were ordinary citizens – they were reluctant, but a government anti-mob task force asked them to help. NO PROTECTION (Producer - Bill McGowen, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"WITHOUT DADDY" -- In an exclusive first interview, young tennis sensation Alexandra Stevenson spoke with ABC News' Barbara Walters about how she felt when her father, Julius Erving (Dr. J), refused to admit he was indeed her father, how she felt when the details of her birth certificate were released, and whether she will see her father now. ALEXANDRA STEVENSON (Producer - Martin Clancy; AP - Phuong Nguyen)

Sunday, August 1, 1999

"WHY DID SCOTT DIE?" – Scott Krueger was a brilliant student with a promising future. But just weeks after he left for college, he fell victim to too much alcohol. Was his fraternity alone to blame, pressuring a student who wanted to belong? Or did this renowned school fail to protect him from dangerous drinking? MIT DRINKING (Producer - Clare Kaye, PA - Angela Chambers, Correspondent - Elizabeth Vargas)

"SURVIVING A PILE-UP" - What do you need to know about avoiding highway pile-ups? Science reporter Michael Guillen examines how bad weather, optical illusions and misjudgements can lead to fatal multi-car crashes. PILE-UPS (Producer - Caron Shapiro, AP - Angela Chambers)

"FEEL GOOD ABOUT FAILURE" – Do you live in a world where competition is frowned upon, all people are treated equally and no one is allowed to fail? It's part of a nationwide effort to make all children feel special – feel good about themselves above all else – you see it everywhere - from the classroom to the ball field. Success without achievement, trophies without winners - some experts say, when these kids grow up, watch out. SELF ESTEEM (Correspondent – John Stossel; Producer - Carrie Cook, PA - Gail Rosenberg)

Wednesday, August 4, 1999

"WHO WILL SAVE THE CHILDREN" – Chris Wallace reports on children who are dying because their parents, who belong to a religious group called The Followers, believe that faith can heal – not the doctor. They refuse to get medical help for their children – no matter how serious the situation. FAITH HEALERS (Producer - Nancy Kramer, AP - Susannah Shipman, Correspondent - Chris Wallace)

"TINA BROWN" -- Diane Sawyer interviews Tina Brown on the eve of the publication of her new magazine "Talk". TINA BROWN (Producer – Ann Reynolds; AP – Minda Allarde; PA – Gail Rosenberg)

"VIATICAL SETTLEMENTS" - A growing number of people have offered up their life insurance policies for sale in a bizarre investment deal, and for the investors, it's like placing a bet on when someone will die. But, as Deborah Roberts reports, for some terminally ill patients, it's become a painful lesson in the real cost of living on borrowed time. VIATICAL SETTLEMENTS (Producer - Michael Salort, PA - Brian Hyland)

Friday, August 6, 1999

"A GOOD DOCTOR" -- Dr. Self was highly trusted and respected by his young patients. "We believe he absolutely saved our son's life," says one parent. But Dr. Self says he was fired from his job of over 12 years because he spent too much time with his patients. Dr. Self claims that as CAMG relied more and more on HMOs for its income, he became concerned about the direction of the practice. RUSHED DOCTORS (Correspondent – Lynn Sherr; Producer – Barbara Baylor; PA – Claudette Caravaggi)

"BURIED ALIVE" -- Deborah Roberts with the inspiring story of a worker trapped when walls of dirt caved in on top of him, pinning him under tons of earth, 20 ft. down. For 15 hours his fate was uncertain -- his rescue was dramatic, but not as dramatic as his recovery. BURIED ALIVE (Producer – David Peterkin; PA – Minda Allarde)

"DO PARENTS MATTER?" -- Sylvia Chase on Judith Harris's theory that parents really aren't all that important when it comes to influencing the behavior of children. She believes that mothers and fathers quickly lose their influence when children begin to leave the nest. NURTURE ASSUMPTION (Producer – Jessica Velmans; PA – Erica Starke)

Sunday, August 8, 1999

"BROKEN PROMISES, SHATTERED LIVES" -- Connie Chung tells the story of good intentions that met a bad end. Imagine walking into a meeting with mobsters while wearing a hidden microphone. Think of the courage that takes. Connie Chung talks to two men who did just that. They weren't undercover cops -- they were ordinary citizens -- they were reluctant, but a government anti-mob task force asked them to help. NO PROTECTION (Producer - Bill McGowen, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"FINAL JOURNEY HOME" -- Jay Schadler with a poignant story on the final chapter of a tale that began more than a half a century ago when 10 young men vanished into thin air on a World War II bombing mission. More than a half century later, on a remote Chinese mountain a fantastic discovery -- will the families of the missing fliers finally learn the truth about when happened so they can bring their heroes home? REMAINS (Producer – Michael Bicks, Jeremy Goldstein)

"BURNING THE EVIDENCE" -- The quiet and rural town of Green Bay, Wisconsin has been shaken to its roots, as a sensational and twisted story had dramatically unfolded in court. John Maloney, a former Green Bay Police arson investigator was charged with strangling his wife and then attempting to burn the evidence, including her body. Bill Ritter brings viewers into the center of the heated courtroom, allowing an insider look at the dramatic turns of a trial in which the prosecution enlisted Maloney's lover as an informant against him. WISCONSIN MURDER (Producer – Justin Sturken, PA – Mary Healy)

"DANGER IN THE STANDS" -- Arnold Diaz with a warning that could save you from serious injury. Danger lurking where you least expect it -- the bleachers. A special hazard for older people and children with their high steps, yawning gaps and no handrails. BLEACHERS (Producer – Elisa Kasher; PA – Justena Kavanagh)

"MEDICINE AND MURDER?" -- John Stossel with a bazaar story of Dr. Michael Swango - nearly every where this doctor goes patients die unexpectedly. Investigators suspect he may be one of the most prolific serial killers in American history -- leaving a trail of unsolved deaths from South Dakota to New York to a world away in Zimbabwe. But he's never been charged with murder. SWANGO (Producer - Judy Tygard; AP - Dean Tsouvalas)

"TALKIN' TEENSPEAK" -- Deborah Roberts with the slang of teenagers of the 90s -- many educators believe they are hurting their future by speaking this way and are taking drastic steps to do something about it. TEEN BONICS (Producer - David Perozzi; PA - Eric Araya)

Friday, August 20, 1999

"THE HATE CONSPIRACY" -- The recent shootings in a Los Angeles Jewish community center were a frightening reminder of the prejudice and intolerance that still exists. Buford Furrows Jr., the reputed white supremacist who allegedly killed a postman and wounded five -- mostly children -- is said to have claimed his attack was "a wake-up call to America to kill Jews." But did this hatred have roots in an earlier wave of extremist violence? "20/20 Friday" re-examines the evolution of one right-wing hate group called "The Order," which mounted a reign of terror in the early 1980s. Meredith Vieira examines the conspiracy of hate, focusing on this group some called "America's terrorists." Did their platform of hate and violence spawn some of today's vicious attacks on minorities in this country? THE ORDER (Producer - Sam Fine; AP - Susan Forester)

"Doctors, Lawyers, Car Crashes and You" - Arnold Diaz reports on "ambulance chasers," street hustlers who monitor police radios and race to the scene of a crash to recruit clients for personal injury lawyers. 2 also exposes lawyers and doctors who are exploiting the system for profit, allegedly submitting phony claims and falsified medical reports in cases in which they know no injury occurred. Finally, Arnold Diaz reports on a frightening new method of committing insurance fraud for profit; bands of criminals who purposely create accidents involving innocent drivers so they can cash in on the insurance proceeds. INSURANCE FRAUD (2 PARTS) (Producers - Janet Klein/Glenn Ruppel, PA - Jennifer Fukui)

"Love...Lost and Found" -- Bob Brown with a story of love and how it can change just about everything...a man who once abandoned his young daughter and was reunited with her 25 years later...a story about a little girl whose fairy tale came true -- she finally found the long-lost father that she had spent a lifetime searching for. REUNION (Producer - Kayce Freed; PA - Stefanie Hirsh)

"Backyard Wrestling" -- Kids have always horsed around in the backyard imitating the action they see on TV. So naturally, when pro-wrestling exploded onto the landscape a couple of years ago, boys were bound to fantasize about the possibilities. But, as Deborah Roberts reports, you won't believe that some of them have been up to since. BACKYARD WRESTLING (Producer - Barb Nienaltowski; AP - Jim Altman; PA - Logan Nakyanzi)

Friday, August 27, 1999

"A Killer In Disguise" -- Forest Sawyer with a in-depth look at a case that involves one of the youngest women ever sentenced to life in prison in her state. Lisa Michelle Lambert was convicted of the gruesome murder of another teenage girl, a rival who had dated her boyfriend. But it's not just the vicious crime or the tender ages of those involved that make Lisa Lambert's story so remarkable. They're just the starting point of a case that took on a bizarre and fascinating life of its own. LISA LAMBERT (Producer - Janice Tobias, AP - Moira McCann, Eric Avram)

"The Law Can't Touch Him" - Since the day their daughter Kristin vanished without a trace from her California campus two years ago, Stan and Denise Smart have been tormented by unanswered questions. Although he has never been charged or arrested by the police, the Smarts have relentlessly pursued a young man who was the last known person to see Kristen alive. They claim he holds the secret to their daughter's disappearance. Tom Jarriel reports, on ABC News 2 Monday. SMART (Producer - Catherine Upin, AP - Angela Chambers) OAD 4/20/98

"Gotcha!" -- Bill Ritter reports on tiny spy cameras. The C.I.A. uses them -- so do husbands trying to catch their wives in the act. People using high-tech equipment, once available only to the CIA, to spy on members of their own family. FAMILY SPYING (Producer -- Barbara Koster; PA -- Erica Starke) OAD 4/7/99

Friday, September 3, 1999

"A Father and His Furry" -- Bill Ritter interviews Paul Neeley who is in prison after committing a violent crime after his daughter revealed a terrible secret -- she made an accusation against someone he thought was a good friend and he took revenge. RAPIST KILLER (Producer - Liza Finley, PA - Marni Harriman, Correspondent - Bill Ritter) OAD 1/10/99

"Get Off our Backs" -- Laws about how much water your toilet uses, laws about how your eggs are cooked, where will it all end? John Stossel with a report on whether the government has become too bossy -- are we sacrificing our freedom to too many silly laws. NANNY STATE (Producer -- Deborah Stone) OAD 4/5/99

"Intimate Danger" -- Perri Peltz with a back-to-school warning on practicing safe sex. Sexually transmitted diseases are more widespread and easier to get than H.I.V. -- but most teens do not know how to properly protect themselves. STDS (Producer -- Gabriella Messina; PA -- Ani Mozian)

"American Spoken Here" -- You might think that in this age of instant communication and easy mobility, that Americans would begin to sound alike. But most Americans still pretty much announce where they're from by the way they talk. Hugh Downs with some fascinating new research from the University of Pennsylvania that suggests that American accents are getting even more distinct. ACCENTS (Producer -- Kira Kay)

Monday, September 6, 1999

"Dangerous Territory" -- Jay Schadler with a story of thousands of thousands of young people moving from bar to bar all night long, weekend after weekend. Many of them still in high school, who have found a way to thwart the law in this Country, they're too young to drink here. Instead they cross the boarder to Tijuana looking for a night of fun. TIJUANA DRINKING (Producer - David Perozzi, PA - Eric Araya) OAD 3/17/99

"Book Report" -- San Donaldson reports on outrageous errors in some of the most widely-used textbooks. A well-respected former teacher says she was stunned to see her name on a textbook she didn't write. An eye-opening look at what your child might be learning in school. TEXTBOOKS (Producer -- Harry Philips; AP -- Jason Rovou, PA -- David Byrd) OAD 4/2/99

"Girls on the Team" -- John Stossel looks at co-ed wrestling. Soccer and softball are one thing, but how do you feel about teenagers, in skin tight clothes, grappling and tugging, rolling around on top of each other. More and more girls are joining the wrestling team and some people say that it breaks some kind of taboo. WOMEN & WRESTLING (Producer - Frank Mastropolo, PA - Brian Hale) OAD 2/28/99

Wednesday, September 8, 1999

"Recalled Stitches" -- Imagine going into the hospital for routine surgery. Everything goes well until afterward. Suddenly, you become ill, perhaps deathly ill with no obvious explanation. Dr. Nancy Snyderman says suspicion has fallen on one of the simple tools commonly used by surgeons. SUTURES (Producer - John Bilotta; AP - John Garcia)

"The War Hero" -- They say timing is everything, and for Senator John McCain, who has his eyes on the White House, the time seemed right to bring out a new book about his life. As you may know, the Senator from Arizona is a war hero, the survivor of more than five years of brutal captivity in Vietnam. Sam Donaldson brings us the story of his lifechanging ordeal. McCAIN (Producer - Howard Rosenberg; AP - John Garcia)

"Animal Overload" -- Perri Peltz with a story on people who are so fond of animals that they collect dozens, even hundreds of them, in their homes. PET HORDING (Producer - Gwen Gowan; PA - Donna Hunter)

Friday, September 10, 1999

"Where is Baby Sabrina?" - It has been three months since little Sabrina Aisenberg vanished without a trace. Her parents say they tucked her in for the night and never saw her again. What happened to baby Sabrina? Do her parents know more than they're telling? The police seem to think so. Deborah Roberts with the crime, the clues and the controversy. What happened to baby Sabrina? WITHOUT A TRACE (2 PARTS) (Producer-Nancy Kramer, PA-Stephanie Hirsh) OAD 3/6/98

"Yes to God" -- She said "yes" she believed in God and dies at Columbine High School. But she wasn't always such a bright light. Lynn Sherr bring us the inspiring story of how Cassie Bernall's mother and father took control and turned their daughter's life around. CASSIE BERNALL (Producer - Steve Schnee; PA - Brian Hale)

Monday, September 13, 1999 8:00PM-9:00PM NYT

"Throwaway Teens" -- Connie Chung with a story of outrage against our children. Like thousands of others, they're living on the streets, but they say they were kicked out of their homes by their own parents. Connie Chung takes us into a world few people have ever seen. An intimate family crisis - boys and girls who say they were driven from their homes because they're gay. GAY RUNAWAYS (Producer - Jessica Velmans; AP - Erica Starke)

"Bigger, Bigger, Bigger" -- Perri Peltz with a revolutionary way for women to choose the size of their breasts. A new kind of breast implant that's expandable and lets women customize the size of their breasts. IMPLANTS (Producer - Joy Ciarcia Levy; PA - Donna Hunter)

"Gary Coleman Update" - Jack Ford with an update on the former TV star. GARY COLEMEN (Producer - Glenn Silber; PA - Gail Rosenberg)

Wednesday, September 15, 1999

"A FATAL VISION" -- He had a long history of run-ins with the law, paranoid delusions he reported to authorities - why was this man free to open fire in the hall of Congress? Tom Jarriel has been looking into the background of the Capitol Hill gunman - was there a story behind this headline - was there something about the shooter that could have predicted what he might do? CAPITOL GUNMAN (Producer - Mary Raffalli; PA - Marni Harriman)

"#1 BOSS" -- Does the head of your company hand out ice cream to the workers? Refuse fancy perks if you can't have them, too? Is he making everyone including secretaries and janitors rich? Diane Sawyer talks to John Chambers, C.E.O. of Cisco Systems -- his goal is to change daily life on this planet and to lead a company that functions like an Olympic team. BEST BOSS (Producer Paul and Holy Fine; PA -- Julie Doriofrio)

Friday, September 17, 1999

"Meningitis" - A swift and silent killer lurks among campuses across the country. It is a contagious infectious disease called meningococcal meningitis and its rapidly destructive and often fatal consequences have promoted alarm. Dr. Nancy Snyderman shares information about growing incidence of meningitis on college campuses nationwide.

"Beatles" - ABC News' Cynthia McFadden brings viewers an exclusive first look at a long-lost footage of the Beatles at Abbey Road Studios. This rare film features the Beatles' 1968 recording of "Hey Bulldog." Fans worldwide will get the first glimpse of never-before-seen footage.

"Unsolved Murder" - ABC News' Elizabeth Vargas takes us to the story of the unsolved murder of six-year-old JonBenet Ramsey since her body was found in the Ramsey home on December 26, 1996. Linda Arndt, the first detective to arrive at the scene now steps forward with new information, speaking for the first time to ABC. Criticized for her handling the case, Ms. Arndt addresses the accusations of mishandling.

Monday, September 20, 1999

"Unsolved Murder" - ABC News' Tom Jarriel examines police records obtained that reveal uncertain evidence that may have resulted in the arrest and accusation of an innocent man. It was a brutal murder, still unsolved -- and an arrest that destroyed lives: Edmund Burke was arrested, charged and publicly accused of a savage murder. Experts disagree on the certainty of the forensic dental evidence behind the arrest.

"Illegal Immigrants" - Chris Wallace reports on residents in Douglas, Arizona who claim every day, immigrants from Mexico flood across the border into this town of 15, 000 -- so many that the U.S. Border Patrol can't keep up. Now, some residents claim they need to protect themselves and their property. Others say it is racism against Mexicans.

"Gratuities" - ABC News' Correspondent Bill Ritter examines why we tip for service.

Wednesday, September 22, 1999

"Yosemite Murders" - The brutal murder of four women and the alleged killer no one suspected; Elizabeth Vargas reports on the Yosemite National Park murders. No one suspected that the all-American Cary Stayner may have been capable of murder. Not even the FBI who interviewed him twice. Ms. Vargas reports on the alleged killer none suspected.

Friday, September 24, 1999

"Farewell, Downs" - Hugh Downs, one of the most famous familiar faces in the history of American television, will anchor his last broadcast of ABC News "20/20". ABC bids farewell as longtime anchor steps down after 21 years hosting and reporting for ABC's acclaimed newsmagazine, "20/20". This program will feature Barbara Walters' candid interview with Mr. Downs; his report from Indonesia on epidemic problem Iodine Deficiency and poignant tribute to a man whose career has spanned more than half of the Century.

Monday, September 27, 1999

"Serving Justice" - In California's longest and most expensive murder trial, jurors were inundated by accounts of graphic violence of victims being tormented. Tom Jarriel speaks with jurors of the Charles Ng Trial, who handed him a death sentence for the violent murder of 11 people. Some jurors say they still suffer emotional stress from the murder trial.

"Sixth Sense" - Do animals have a sixth sense? ABC News' Perri Peltz speaks with British biologist Dr. Rupert Sheldrake about his new book, "Dogs Know When Their Owners are Coming Home." Dr. Sheldrake says animals can actually read minds.

Wednesday, September 29, 1999

"Columbine High School" - In an exclusive first interview, ABC News' Diane Sawyer speaks with Columbine shooting survivor Patrick Ireland regarding his fight for survival and miraculous recovery.

"Carnie Wilson" - ABC News' Correspondent Deborah Roberts reports on singer Carnie Wilson who discusses her controversial decision to broadcast her liposuction over the internet
